Re MUR 5504

Dear Mr Jordan

In response to your letter of August 10, 2004, my best recollections of the events are as follows

Sometime in April of 2003, as I was contacted by my brother John P Karoly, Esquire, who asked if I would contribute to the campaign for Richard Gephardt, then seeking the Democratic nomination for President

I believe that Mr Gephardt was to due to make a stop in Allentown shortly thereafter I made out a check for $4000 00 on April 10, 2003 (check #1516) I delivered the check to John Karoly because I believed he was going to be meeting with Mr Gephardt

The check was written out my joint personal checking account that I have with my wife Lauren B Angstadt with First Union Bank/Wachovia

No checks were ever written out of the Peter J Karoly and Associates account

The check represented a contribution for $2000 00 for myself and $2000 00 for my wife, for Mr Gephardt's campaign

That I was the last that I heard of this matter until receipt of your letter

Very truly yours,

Peter J Karoly and Associates
